1st IPA World Symposium

Ancient Olympia 18-22 April 2016

Under the aegis of the Hellenic Police Headquarters

Dear IPA friends,

As you have already informed during the World Congress of Germany, the Hellenic Section organizing the 1st IPA World Symposium in Ancient Olympia, on the occasion of the lighting of the Olympic flame, 18-22 April 2016.

We invite all our IPA friends and their families and friends, to live a unique experience. They will have the opportunity to live unique moments, on the birthplace of the Olympic Games, to walk on the same earth, where the ancient Greeks organized exactly the same opening ceremony of this important event

In terms of the Hellenic Section, will become a major effort to ensure that participants attend together with the Immortals and few officials, the real lightening of the flame. This is a unique experience, a life experience.

In parallel, you will enjoy a full program, including amazing excursions, excellent Greek cuisine and the luxury of a beautiful 4-star hotel, evenings with live music and dancing program.

The weather during this period is ideal (about 20c).

Dear friends

We are looking forward to see you all, to share with you this wonderful experience and to feel the Greek hospitality
